

George Washington Amity Series

Celebration of the 225th Anniversary of America's Oldest Treaty

The Treaty of Friendship & Amity with Morocco Ratified by Congress July 18, 1787

When: Wednesday July 18, 2012: 6:30pm to 9:00pm
Where: George Washington University
Grand Ballroom, Marvin Center, 800 21st NW (Between H & I)
Washington, DC 20052

Refreshments and Hors d'Oeuvres will be served

Register at: www.amityseries.eventbrite.com or the Amity Series website: www.amityseries.org

Please join us for a reception to celebrate the 225th anniversary of the longest treaty in force between the United States and any other country!

This event publically launches the George Washington Amity Series which seeks to bring together primarily Muslim and Christian communities to help them connect on a personal level, while seeking to comprehend each other and clarify what it means to be an authentic believer. The George Washington Amity Series seeks to go beyond Interfaith Dialog to building Interpersonal Relationships.

It is a gesture of thanks to an Arab Muslim king for the significant role he played in the establishment of the United States in its early years.

Speakers will detail the history of this treaty and lay out the vision of the George Washington Amity Series. Participants will also have time to interact with each other on a personal level.